GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

EVERY CLASS OFFERED HEREIN IS COVERED BY THE RULES AND SPECIFICATIONS DESIGNED BY COWBOY DRESSAGE WORLD, ALL OF WHICH CAN BE FOUND AT www.cowboydressageworld.com AND WILL BE CONDUCTED AND JUDGED IN ACCORDANCE HEREWITH.

Owners, Riders and Trainers are responsible for the knowledge of and compliance with the rules of Cowboy Dressage.

- Entries must be paid in full by entry closing date. Any unpaid entries will not receive a number.
- Entries must be made on the form provided herein, fully completed, with all required signatures, and accompanied by a check or money order in the full amount, payable to "ORCDA". Any unpaid entry shall not be recorded. All entries postmarked after closing date will be considered post entries and post entry charges collected.
- Exhibitors are responsible for their own errors and those of their agents in preparation of entry blanks. A horse will not be given a number unless it is entered in at least one class. All horses brought into the grounds must be registered at the show office.
- Show Office is to be advised before the class of 'scratches' or appropriate changes of horse or rider at least one hour before ride time as a courtesy to other competitors and the show office.
- Management reserves the right to change or alter the officials listed without notice prior to or during the show.
- Only assigned cars, trucks and/or trailers will be allowed to park in main barn area, as approved by Show Management. This will be strictly enforced. SHOW MANAGEMENT WILL REQUEST THE MOVING OF RV's OR VEHICLES INAPPROPRIATELY PARKED. Failure to remove vehicle or trailers when requested by show management or Linn County Fair & Expo personnel will result in towing of vehicles at owner's expense.
- Stalls will be assigned by Horse Show Management and will be available on Thursday, June 13th at 4:00 p.m. Exhibitors may identify on their entry forms who they would like to be stabled next to but requests for specific stalls will not be considered. All stalls used by exhibitors must be returned to their original condition prior to leaving the grounds. Exhibitors will be billed for the cost of repairing any damage to any stalls they use. Any stall used, regardless of reason, shall be subject to the regular stall fee. Only management may reassign stalls. Reassignment may be necessary if an exhibitor cancels after stall assignments have been made or does not use all stalls assigned. Failure to abide by management's stabling assignments may result in an exhibitor being prohibited from competing.
- Refunds, all or part, are governed as follows: entry fees will be returned only if written notice of cancellation is received by the Show Manager before close of entry deadline. If a horse or rider is unable to compete at the start of the show, only entry fees will be refunded, with the presentation of horse's veterinary certificate or medical documentation of a major health issue, prior to start of show. ORCDA Board of Directors are the only authorized individuals (collectively) to approve a refund.
- Dogs are allowed on the grounds but must be on leash at all times. NO exceptions, please.
- The outside arena may be used. The arena next to the stalls and the large Calapooia arena may be used on Friday between clinic sessions. Please do not ride within the court areas on Saturday morning. There will be space in the arena for warming up before your ride. Turn outs are not allowed anywhere on the show grounds.
- Show Office is to be advised before the class of 'scratches' of horse or rider at least one hour before ride time as a courtesy to other competitors and the show office. Any Change may be done case by case and there is a fee as long as it does not disrupt ride times. No changing of classes at the arena.
- This show encourages feedback from its owners, riders, and trainers. Please feel free to stop by the horse show office and fill out our feedback form to provide us with your experience and offering constructive input for future events.
- Callers: Riders are encouraged to memorize their tests. The use of a caller is not mandatory. ORCDA allows the rider to use a caller of their choice; however, the ultimate responsibility for accurate and correct riding of the test falls upon the rider. If the rider chooses to use a caller, it is the rider's responsibility to arrange for one.
- Age of the Horse: The Cowboy Dressage Horses' age is based on January 1st of that calendar year, regardless of the month foaled. For example - a horse foaled anytime in the year 2010 is considered one-year-old on January 1, 2011 and two years old on January 1, 2012.
- A Note About Gaited Horses: The gaited tests are designed specifically for the gaited horse. Gaited horses are welcome in the non-gaited tests but will be scored a maximum high value of 4.5 if gaiting instead of jogging when requested in the non-gaited test.
- Schooling Horses: Due to liability concerns, horses brought to the show to school are required to register through the office and a release signed. Ring fees apply per horse. Mandatory Office fees apply per horse.

Your help is needed and SO appreciated!!!

It takes a lot hands to put on a successful Cowboy Dressage Gathering, and we need help. Please consider volunteering, or maybe you have a family member or friend who can help make this event a success. Most of these jobs do not require any previous experience.

Please contact Cameron Pedri if you can help us out, or know someone who can. She can answer questions and work with you on scheduling.

These are the jobs we need help with – please check the box if interested, or contact Cameron directly.

_____ Scribe for the Judges: Sit next to the judge and write down comments and scores as the judges dictate them. Shifts will be half day (AM or PM), and your test rides will be scheduled around scribe times. This position does require some familiarity with cowboy dressage or other dressage. Will receive a free lunch and one free class entry. Entry fee for one class will be refunded show weekend.

_____ Court Set Up or Break Down: This will happen before and after the show. It is somewhat physical, including carrying court pieces to/from the storage trailer. No experience needed in actual court set up, just moving items. Will receive a free 2024 ORCDA Tee Shirt (new design this year!)

_____ Gate Person: Manages the gate, by keeping the riders “on deck” aware and ready to ride at scheduled times. Riders are responsible for getting to ring on time. Communicates scratches, changes, etc. to judges. Clean up manure in court area. No experience needed. Shifts will be half days/but tie\me can be shared. This is a great role for those interested in learning more about cowboy dressage, what a gathering is like, or who just wants to be able to hang out at a horse show! Will receive a free lunch.

_____ Score Runner: Picks up completed score sheets from judges and takes them to the office. This does involve quite a bit of walking. Shifts will be about 2 hours at a time, but multiple opportunities are available. It’s a great way to get your daily “Steps” in! Will receive a free snack or lunch.

ORCDA RELEASE, ASSUMPTION OF RISK, WAIVER & INDEMNIFICATION

I represent by signing this form that I am participating in this event voluntarily. I understand and acknowledge that horses can be unpredictable and sometimes dangerous animals, and that horse related activities involve inherent risks of accident, loss and serious bodily injury including broken bones, head injuries, trauma, pain, suffering, or death (“Harm”). I participate at my own risk. I agree to release OR Cowboy Dressage Alliance (“ORCDA”) from all claims for money damages or otherwise from any Harm to me or my horse and for any Harm caused by me or my horse to others, even if the Harm resulted, directly or indirectly, from the negligence of the ORCDA, Facility, Event Company, Event Coordinator, or Owners. I agree to expressly assume all risks of Harm to me or my horse, including the Harm resulting from the ORCDA, Facility, Event Company, Event Coordinator, or Owners. I agree to indemnify (that is, to pay for) any losses, damages, or costs incurred by me or my horse, my family members or attendants at the event.

I understand that I am not required to wear protective head gear and I acknowledge that ORCDA has notified me to do so, while warning that no protective gear can guard against all injuries. Those under the age of 18 will be required to wear a helmet.

If I am a parent or guardian signing on behalf of a minor, I consent to the minor’s participation and agree to all of the above provisions, and agree to assume all the obligations of this Release on behalf of the minor.

I understand that ORCDA as stated above includes all of their officers, officials, directors, agents, personnel, volunteers and affiliated organizations. I represent that my horse and I are both healthy and sound enough to participate in the event.

I also agree that ORCDA, Facility, Event Company, Event Coordinator, or Owners may use or assign photographs, videos, audios, cablecasts or other likenesses of me and my horse taken during the course of the event for the promotion, coverage or benefit of the ORCDA, Facility, Event Company, Event Coordinator, or Owners. Those likenesses will not be used to advertise a product and they may not be used in such a way as to jeopardize amateur status in competition. I hereby expressly and irrevocably waive and release any rights in connection with such use, including any claims to compensation, invasion of privacy, right of publicity, or to misappropriation.

ORS 30.687-697 Oregon Equine Activity Liability Act

This act stipulates that an equine sponsor or an equine professional is immune from liability for the death or injury of a participant, arising out of riding, training, driving, grooming or riding as a passenger upon an equine. However, there are exceptions to this rule: an equine sponsor or professional will be held liable for injuries of an equine activity participant if he or she displays a willful and wanton or intentional disregard for the safety of the participant.

By signing below, I agree to be bound by all applicable statutes of the state of Oregon and ORCDA and Owners’ rules and all terms and provisions of this entry form.
